

Education Indicators

Education indicators: Measure changes in educational attainment and test scores that may result from land reuse and redevelopment.

Indicator	Definition	Data Source
Education data from census on high school graduation rates	Population who have graduated from high school	American Fact Finder link for Educational Attainment
Education data from census on Associate's degree attainment	Population by age group who have obtained an Associate's degree	American Fact Finder link for Educational Attainment
Education data from census on Bachelor's degree attainment	Population by age group who have obtained a Bachelor's degree	American Fact Finder link for Educational Attainment
Third grade reading comprehension score	School data for reading comprehension in the third grade (e.g., important in areas with multiple older buildings that may be vacant and painted with lead-based paint, or in areas of high disinvestment, which can impact school quality)	Local school district data National Center for Education Statistics (select Data Tools)